

Forever in our hearts

Forever in our hearts you will always be I will cherish all the memories that you left with me Forever in our hearts will always be your smile And all the ways that you cared and went the extra mile

Forever in our hearts will be your unconditional love A true gift given to us from the Lord up above Forever in our heart you will always be So I'll say goodbye for now until we meet again in eternity.

Giselle was born on June 14, 1960 in St. Louis, Missouri to lovely mother, Beatrice Rucker, and devoted father, Isaiah Askew Sr, who she called Deacon. Giselle was known as "GiGi" to some and "MaG" to others and she was the baby of six siblings.

Giselle was educated in the St. Louis Public School System, graduating from Northwest High School, later attended and graduated from University of Missouri, Mizzou with a Bachelors of Arts degree in communications.

GiGi loved to travel and expand her knowledge on any and everything she could. She was an avid shopper and made extra time to stop on road trips for a thrift store. She had a wealth of knowledge regarding sewing and quilting, even lending out that knowledge teaching classes at the local fabric stores, and quilting shops and expos. She had quilting friends from around the world. These skills and passion that she inherited from her mother, Beatrice. She loved to spoil her father, taking him on drives and sneaking him sweets over every time she came to visit. Not only did she spoil her father, she made sure to spoil her sisters when they came to town each year. She always made extra time for her daughter Thomia, whom of which she took everywhere she possibly could and nurtured her curiosity and passed on her love for learning.

Giselle confessed salvation in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age, she joined Mt. Bethel in April 1971. GiGi was extremely active at her church in various ministries; She was known in the community doing various works and always volunteering to help out where she could. Berean District Choir Youth and Young Adult Choir Usher Ministry Glee Club and ABC Children's Choir Director.

GiGi was the secretary, business and booking agent for the Gospel Radio Personality, Rev. Mary Tillman. She was one of the Angel Crew Giselle was lifelong employee with the U.S. Federal Government. She worked for the Bureau of Alcohol, Firearms and Tobacco for 27 years, she started at entry level and throughout her career and various achievements, she became a Senior Investigator and Instructor for Basic Training IOI New Hires.

Giselle was preceded in death by her grandmother Mary Rivers Askew, her mother Beatrice Rucker, she leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter Thomia King, her father Isaiah Askew Sr. (Sarah), her sisters Debora Kaye Askew, Marlene Askew, Anita Askew.
